

Dear Participants

Thank you for your participation in this study so far.

We are now at the evaluation stage. This is where we want you to evaluate the storylines that have been generated so far. Your thoughts at this stage are just as important as your contributions to the storylines so far.

Please read and follow the instructions below

* 1. Please provide your Prolific ID here, using cut-and paste

* 2. No personal data will be collected from participants in this study. However, responses to the questions below may be made public in a research paper, blog, or presentation or the like. If so, this will be done in a way that prevents any identification of the individual who made the response.

Do you understand the above and consent to take part in this study?

Yes

No

* 3. Please tick only ONE box in each column, according to which storyline you think that column statement most applies to.

* 4. Please use the columns below to sort ALL the 11 surviving storylines into 2 groups, of any size, according to what you think is an important difference between the two groups of storylines. Then use the Comment box below, to explain how you think the first group of storylines is significantly different from the second.

The storylines in each pile must have something in common, which is not present in the other pile. Ideally, this will describe a difference that you think is significant, in terms of the potential or actual consequences.

You can view all the storylines here: _____

Please now explain what you think is the significant difference in the contents of the storylines in Group 1 versus Group 2. What is the difference and what consequences could there be (past, present or future)

* 5. Which of any of the 11 surviving storylines (or part therein) did you find most surprising? Regardless of whether you thought it was or was not likely to happen in real life. Choose from the dropdown menu (it includes a "none" option)

Why did you think that storyline was the most surprising?

* 6. What kinds of events were you surprised to not see in any of the storylines, but which you think might be expected in the 2021-2022 future?

* 7. Looking at all the contributions by others, do you think that overall they were optimistic or pessimistic?
